Cookies

We use so-called cookies on our website, e.g. in order to recognise visitor preferences and to be able to design the website accordingly. This makes navigation easier and makes the website more user-friendly. Cookies are small files that are stored on a visitor’s hard drive. They allow information to be stored for a certain period of time and the visitor’s computer to be identified. You can configure the browser so that you can approve or reject the storage of a cookie. You can also limit the lifetime of cookies to your current session.

Processing and disclosure of personal data

At some points on our website we offer you the opportunity to contact us or to make use of certain services (e.g. inquiries). We use the personal data transmitted in this way only for the purpose for which it was provided to us. Your data will not be passed on to unauthorised third parties.

Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. (“Google”). Google Analytics uses “cookies”, which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website will generally be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. However, if IP anonymisation is activated on this website, your IP address will be shortened beforehand by Google within member states of the European Union or in other signatory states to the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transmitted to a Google server in the USA where it will be shortened. On behalf of the operator of this website, Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide other services relating to website activity and internet usage to the website operator. The IP address transmitted by your browser as part of Google Analytics is not combined with other data from Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. In addition, you can prevent Google from collecting the data generated by the cookie and related to your use of the website (including your IP address) and Google from processing this data by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available at the following link (<http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en>). You can prevent the collection by Google Analytics by clicking on the following link. An Opt-Out-Cookie is set, which prevents the future collection of your data when visiting this website: Google Analytics deaktivieren)

Changes to this privacy policy

Due to current circumstances, such as an amendment of legislation, we will - if necessary - update this privacy statement.
